CLEMENT MANOR IN THE NEWS

We are excited to showcase Clement Manor once again in the Milwaukee media.

Milwaukee Magazine published its annual Face of MKE issue this month, with Clement Manor having exclusive rights to the Faces of Senior Living category.

This year, we highlight our Center for Enrichment Lifelong Learning community, which offers classes for not only residents but also senior community members to enjoy.

In the article, we showcase our popular weekly Tai Chi class, where mindful movement matters, for all levels of activity.

CATHOLIC HERALD FEATURE

We are proud to share a recent article from the Catholic Herald featuring an interview with our Pastoral Care Manager, Tom Brefka, about the empathetic practices of our entire Pastoral Care team. Tom says his team's philosophy of encouraging God's presence through the Catholic faith into seniors' lives comes from a heart of empathy.

"It's just a relationship-based family that we're in. We're very much part of a community here," he says. "We have all gone through the same situation."

WISCONSIN STATE FAIR

The Wisconsin State Fair came to Clement Manor! Our activities team coordinated a fun-filled week with the residents all over campus playing fair games, eating fair food, and winning fair prizes! Of course cream puffs were involved in the fun.

The West Building Resident Choir performed for all residents with songs about cities and states. Led by Pastoral Care Manager, Tom Brefka, they have been rehearsing for a few months.

GONE FISHING

A group of residents spent a beautiful afternoon at Menomonee Park, enjoying the weather and the water while having a picnic lunch and doing some fishing. It's always nice to get some fresh air and have some summer fun.

HAPPY 101st BIRTHDAY VERN!

Last week one of our very special residents, Vern, turned 101 years old! Vern has been with the Clement Manor family for quite a few years, and he continues to have his quick wit and fun attitude. His family brought him his favorite sweet treats to celebrate. Happiest of birthdays Vern!

We're so lucky to have Sister Barbara and Sister Natalie from our sponsor, the
